INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of United Way of Bruce Grey:

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of United Way of Bruce Grey (the Organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as at December 31, 2022 and the statements of operations and changes in fund balances and cash flow for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion section of our report, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Organization as at December 31, 2022, and results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

United Way of Bruce Grey derives revenue from charitable donations and fundraising activities, the completeness of which is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these revenues was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of the Organization. Consequently, we were unable to determine whether any adjustments were necessary to revenues, excess of revenues over expenditures, and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021 and assets and fund balances as at December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021. Our audit opinion for both years was modified accordingly because of the possible effect of this scope limitation.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Organization in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

UNITED WAY OF BRUCE GREY
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
AS AT DECEMBER 31, 2022

Purpose of the organization

The United Way of Bruce Grey is a non-profit, non-partisan, volunteer driven Organization that engages in an effort to mobilize resources to support a broad range of non-profit human care services. It exists to improve the quality of life of all people in the Counties of Bruce and Grey by raising and investing money in services and programs that help meet human needs in our communities.

The United Way operates according to the highest standards of conduct consistent with its commitment to volunteerism, integrity, accountability, accessibility, being apolitical and having respect for donors, service providers, and the users of services.

The United Way is a charitable Organization registered under the Income Tax Act of Canada and, as such, is exempt from income taxes.

1. Summary of significant accounting policies

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations. The significant accounting policies applied in accordance with these standards are as follows:

(a) Fund accounting

The purpose of the Operating Fund is to conduct annual fundraising campaigns to raise funds for distribution to other charitable organizations and the community and to cover fundraising, program, and building expenditures. The rental revenue from the Centre and the corresponding expenses are recorded in the Operating Fund.

The purpose of the Endowment Fund, established in 2007 through an investment with the Community Foundation of Grey Bruce, is to provide funding for future initiatives. These may include, but are not limited to, the following purposes; bequest/endowment funds, United Way Capital fund, new initiatives, grants, agencies' capital campaigns, and guaranteed sustaining allocations when the annual campaign is lower than previous performances. Should the United Way cease to exist, the income from the Endowment Fund would be disbursed by the Foundation's Board of Directors to charities in the community working for the betterment of the communities in a manner consistent with the historic role of the United Way.

The purpose of the SAFE (Supportive Assistance for Emergencies) Fund is to support and maintain persons displaced or left homeless in Bruce and Grey counties as a result of a natural or man-made disaster where the losses of such persons are not wholly or partially covered by insurance. United Way of Bruce Grey uses the fund name "SAFE" in reference to the Court Order named fund Disaster Relief Fund.

(b) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand and cash deposited in Canadian bank accounts.

(c) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from management's best estimates as additional information becomes available in the future.

1. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

(d) Revenue recognition

United Way of Bruce Grey follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions.

The Organization holds several fundraising campaigns annually, including a fall workplace campaign and various special events. Campaign revenue, proceeds from special events and one-time donations generated during any one year are recognized as revenue when received or receivable, if the amount can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured. Fundraising and program expenditures are expensed as incurred.

All campaign revenue, proceeds from special events and one-time donations are considered available for unrestricted use with the exception of donor designations.

Donor designations represent donations made by individuals and corporations which are designed to be distributed to other United Ways, Member Agencies of the United Way and/or other charitable organizations. Donor designations are paid to the designated agencies annually. Donor designated donations which have been collected in the current year but have not yet been paid to designated agencies are reported as deferred donor designations.

Donations and grants restricted for a specific purpose by the contributor are reported as deferred revenue and are recognized as income in the same period that the eligible expenditure is incurred.

Investment income, rental income, endowment fund income, and other income is recognized on the accrual basis as it is earned. Investment income earned is retained in the fund to which the investments are held.

Government subsidies are recognized when there is reasonable assurance that the subsidy will be received and all attached conditions will be complied with. The Organization recognizes the subsidy as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed.

(e) Financial instruments

The Organization initially measures its financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value and subsequently measures all its financial assets and liabilities at amortized cost, except for investments.

Financial assets measured at amortized cost include cash and accounts receivable.

Financial instruments reported at fair market value include short term fixed income bonds and investment with the Community Foundation Grey Bruce. Fair value for these investments is readily available. Changes in fair value are recognized in net income.

Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost include accounts payable.

(f) Gifts in kind

The Organization receives a limited amount of in-kind donations, that include consumables for special events and equipment for donation to the community at large. These financial statements do not reflect any revenue or expenditures related to gifts in kind.

(g) Contributed services

Volunteers contribute many hours per year to assist the Organization in carrying out its service delivery activities. Because of the difficulty in determining their fair value, contributed services are not recognized in the financial statements

1. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Administrative expenditures are allocated to fundraising and community impact proportionally on the basis of level of effort attributed to each.

5. Financial instruments

The Organization's exposure to risks from financial instruments is described as follows:

(a) Credit risk

Credit Risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation. The Organization is exposed to credit risk in connection with the collection of its accounts receivable. The Organization mitigates this risk by maintaining payment policies and collection procedures and does not anticipate significant loss for non-collection.

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity Risk is the risk that the Organization will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The Organization believes it has a strategy in place so that future cash flows will satisfy its obligations.

6. Comparative information

Certain comparative figures have been reallocated to conform with the current year's presentation.

7. Economic dependence

A significant portion of the Organization's revenue is derived from Bruce Power and its suppliers. The Organization is financially dependent on Bruce Power.

8. Impact of COVID-19

The impact of Covid-19 in Canada and on the global economy is significant. As the impacts of Covid-19 continue, there could be further impact on the Organization that could impact the Organization's future operations. At this time, the full potential impact of Covid-19 on the Organization is not known. Given the dynamic nature of these circumstances and the duration of disruption, the related financial impact cannot be reasonably estimated at this time. The Organization will continue to focus on providing services and programs to the community within the guidelines.
